There is a special need for a change in this District. Under the Federal farm program there is a close relationship between the farmer and his government. Mr. Steagall has specialized in banking legislation whereas this is a ellers, Mrs. Baxter Bryan, Miss their parents in Elba, have returnated Busbee, Miss Nora Bullock, ed to Montevallo to resume their farming and laboring District. Our Congressman can better serve his people with a place on the Agriculture Committee, pledged to serve the big farmer and little farmer alike. At this time Speaker Bankhead, an Alabamian, can help place a newly elected Congressman on this important committee, and others where he can better represent the laboring class of people.

This District deserves an equal share in the distribution of Federal monies and benefits. This can be had with an aggressive Congressman who is pledged to work for his people and his District.

Equipped and able to better serve these special needs is J. HUBERT FARMER. Born and reared on a Henry County farm, he knows and understands farming. He is sympathetic to this District's problems.
